

Paddington Town Hall

Paddington Town Hall is less than 5km from the CBD, in the heart of Sydney's fashionable Paddington district. It was completed in 1891 in a Municipal Renaissance style exhibiting typical Victorian grandeur.

The site is adjacent to the Victoria Barracks and it was built on the top of the ridge to allow the clock tower to majestically rise above the surrounding neighbourhood. The Clock Tower was completed in 1905 to commemorate the coronation of King Edward VII with an inscribed clock face in his honour.

The Building has two storey facades along Oxford Street and Oatley Road featuring arched windows flanked by Corinthian pilasters. This stunning unique venue boasts a magnificent grand hall with an impressive balcony that runs the full length of the building with views of the city skyline.

Catering

Paddington Town Hall maintains an Open Catering Policy to all Gold Licensed Caterers registered with Restaurant and Catering NSW. An appropriate liquor licence is required to serve/sell alcohol in a venue that is licensed under the Local Government's POPE (Place of Public Entertainment) requirements. The responsibility for the appropriate delivery, storage and service of alcohol during events held in the venue rests at all times with the holder of the liquor licence.
